SHIPYARD BOAT IS TAKEN AWAY BY TRUCKLOAD

Youth Arrested on Charge of Conspiracy Covering Thefts of Rope, Valves and Ship Equipment Valued at $5000

Former Assistant Storekeeper in Moore Yard Says Father Knew of Stolen Goods Hidden in Basement at Home

Details of a clever conspiracy which was involved in the theft of rope, valves, copper tubing and other shipfittings, estimated at $5000 in value, was revealed with the arrest and confession of Boe H. Brecht, thirty-eight years, Oakland, and a former assistant storekeeper of the Moore shipyard. The arrest was made by John Caverly, head of the company's guards. $1000 worth of values was found hidden in the basement of the Brecht home. The senior Brecht denies all knowledge of the thefts or the presence of the valves. Young Brecht, who is but 23, in his confession told of storing a ton of seven-eighths rope in the basement with the knowledge of his father. The method used by young Brecht, while store keeper at the Moore yards, was said to be as follows:

The company used a warehouse outside the yards for the storage of rope and other valuable fittings, of which young Brecht was in charge. He would order a motor truck from the Moore Brothers company, the driver and there load him with such goods as he could easily dispose of. This load was then taken to Bekins' storage house on Twenty-second street and later he would remove it in a second truck and make deliveries to different ship handlers in San Francisco.

Girl Stenographer Is Taken as Bond Thief

CHICAGO, July 12.—Miss Anna M. Rupp, a 21-year-old stenographer, is under arrest today in connection with the disappearance of $10,000 worth of Liberty bonds and other securities from the bank of the Chicago branch of the Chicago & North Western Railway Co., where she was employed.

The police say that when they searched Miss Rupp's apartment last night, they found a large quantity of Liberty bonds and the bonds filled with expensive clothing. A key found in her room opened a safe deposit box in which $4000 in Liberty bonds, $2000 in war stamps and $500 worth of stock certificates were found.

200,000 Armenians Will Starve to Death

NEW YORK, July 12.—Declaring it was a "crime against humanity," the American relief administration has announced that the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief has "placed here in California" to aid in relieving distress in that war-stricken district.

British Aviator Is Killed in Accident

DARTON, O., July 12.—Lieutenant Frank S. Caldwell, British Royal Air Force, was killed at McCook field in a seven hundred foot fall from an airplane, which was carrying a series of tests of parachutes used in connection with airplanes, during the afternoon made several successful jumps. In his final flight, the aviator, who was wearing a parachute, snapped under his weight before the envelope could open. Lieutenant Caldwell spent four and one-half hours on the front in France.

Iowa Fair Board Cleared of Charges

DES MOINES, Ia., July 12.—Woodworth Clum, secretary, and other members of the Iowa Fair Board, which has been conducting the probe, reported that while there were some irregularities in reporting expenditures, nothing criminal attached to the irregularity.

Largest Dirigible Passes Over Capital

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The A-4, the army's largest dirigible, which left Akron, Ohio, at 10 o'clock last night, passed over the Capitol at 4:45 today. After circling the city it proceeded to Langley field, Va., where it will be permanently stationed. The A-4 is 162 feet long and 33 feet in diameter and its total cubic content is 35,000 feet. It has a total lifting capacity of 6160 pounds.

S. F. Flyer and His Companion Killed in Plane Crash

LITTLE ROCK, July 12.—Lieutenant T. J. Lenihan of San Francisco, California, and Chaplain R. H. O'Dowd of Brooklyn, New York, assistant camp morale officer at Camp Pike, were instantly killed today when a plane piloted by Lieutenant Lenihan was struck by another machine from Eberts field. The second machine also fell, but its occupants were not injured.

SOLDIERS KILLED AS ARMY TRUCK GOES OVER BANK

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Six soldiers, two of them captains, were killed and eleven injured when an army truck in which they were riding plunged over an embankment near Alexandria early today. The truck, on its way to Camp Humphreys and carrying eighteen men, had turned out for a military police patrol wagon when it swerved off the causeway, falling some fifteen feet to the rocks on the bed of Great Hunting creek. The injured men were taken by the military police to Camp Humphreys and the bodies of the dead were removed temporarily to Alexandria Hospital.

The dead: Charles C. Jadurek, United States infantry. Captain C. H. Heitman, engineer corps. Corporal Albert P. Ebly, engineer corps. Private Vincent Baptiste, colored, engineer corps.

SEVEN FIREMEN KILLED, 14 HURT AS WALLS FALL

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Seven firemen were reported killed and 14 hurt today when a five-story warehouse of Jacob Potash and Brothers in the northeast section of the city sharply fell from its foundations. The building was struck by flames when the roof and walls collapsed without warning.

Private Ships on East Coast Tied Up

NEW YORK, July 12.—With approximately 200 ships already tied up in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and smaller Atlantic ports, representatives of sailors' unions and United States shipping board officials were endeavoring today to reach an agreement here today which will avert the complete paralysis of coastwise and trans-Atlantic shipping.

Black Hand Suspects Arrested in Chicago

CHICAGO, July 12.—Six men are under arrest here today charged with being members of an alleged "black hand" gang which is declared to have obtained more than $50,000 through blackmail of residents of the Italian quarter. The arrests were made by postoffice inspectors after an investigation extending over a period of three months.

Germans Evacuating Schleswig-Holstein

LONDON, July 12.—Germany is preparing to evacuate Schleswig-Holstein, according to an Exchange Telegram dispatch from Copenhagen today. Spontaneous activity there is said to be the reason for the exodus.

CHRISTIANS IN KOREA BURNED ALIVE, CHARGE

Japanese Atrocities Reported After Church Investigations Following the Imprisonment of Presbyterian Missionaries

Koreans Driven at Point of Bayonet Into Church, Shot from Windows, and Then Kept in Burning Building

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. NEW YORK, July 12.—A report of alleged Japanese atrocities in Korea was made public today at the headquarters of the Presbyterian church in America. It is a result of investigations by representatives in Korea of the church, following the imprisonment of some of its missionaries by the Japanese authorities.

ALLIES TO LIFT TRADE BLOCKADE AGAINST RUSSIA

By FRED S. FERGUSON, United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, July 12.—The council of five began issuing instructions today on the cessation of the blockade against Germany. The council also started consideration of lifting the blockade against Russia, its maintenance being regarded as most difficult by the official decree abolishing the barriers around Germany. American delegates also held a meeting.

WOMEN NOT SAFE IN THEIR HOMES

Preliminary police examinations of Koreans suspected of complicity in a revolutionary movement resulted in the report to include "every human refinement in brutality," men being beaten to death and women subjected to nearly every possible form of brutal treatment. Milder punishment, it is said, included ninety blows rained upon the prisoner's body with a bamboo rod and the administering of many boot kicks.

Respectable women in one part of Korea were not safe in their homes during the day, the report continues, and so were forced to spend most of their time in the hills, returning to their homes at night. The Japanese police designate all women who favor the independence of their land as social outcasts. One woman whose arm was said to have been wrenched from the socket by her persecutors.

ANTI-AMERICAN ATTITUDE OF PRESS

The Shimbu of March 17, 1919, is quoted as saying:

"The stirring up of the minds of the Koreans is the work of the American missionaries. This uprising is their work. There are a great many law-minded people among the missionaries. They make the minds of the Koreans bad and plant the seeds of democracy." In conclusion, after publishing these articles, the Shimbu declared that the attitude of the press when the government permits such stuff to be printed. As the press always is under the censor here, where such stuff is printed the government becomes morally responsible. The truth is prohibited. Falsehoods and lies are allowed. Such a course of action only engenders the relations of the governments concerned."

WAR ON JAPAN IS KOREAN THREAT

PARIS, July 12.—Korea intends to fight Japan if her present policy of favoring nations recognize her independence fails, according to Voon Hong Lyuh, a Korean delegate to the peace commission, who left Korea on May 24 and arrived in Paris.

BURNED ALIVE IS CHARGE OF KOREAN.

Lyuh says 20,000,000 Koreans realize they have no chance to win against military Japan, but they believe it better to die for independence than to live under Japanese rule. He also believes the Japanese people will fall to support the war, which might start a revolution, making Japan an actual as well as a nominal republic.

Three Turk War Leaders Receive Death Sentences

(By Associated Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, July 12.—Enver Pasha, Talaat Bey and Djemal Pasha, the leaders of the Turkish government during the war, were condemned to death yesterday by a Turkish court-martial investigating the conduct of the Turkish government during the war period.

TREATY FIGHT MAY PREVENT WILSON TOUR

President's Plans for Speech-Making Trip Likely to Be Abandoned If Presence Is Needed at Daily Hearings

WASHINGTON, July 12.—It was regarded as highly probable by both Republican and Democratic members of the Senate foreign relations committee today that President Wilson would be invited to appear before the committee after it began consideration of the treaty of Versailles on Monday next.

PROHIBITION LAW BIG DIRIGIBLE TO BE MODIFIED, SEEMS PROBABLE EARLY TONIGHT

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Present war-time prohibition bills before Congress are "unworthy" and "insincere," Samuel Undermyer, New York attorney, declared today before the prohibition sub-committee of the Senate.

German War Chiefs May Surrender U-Boat Captains Flee For Safety

(Exclusive cable to International News Service and London Daily Express) BERLIN, July 12.—There is a report in circulation here that Admiral Von Tirpitz, originator of Germany's submarine frightfulness, and General Ludendorff, formerly known as the "brains of the German army," may soon come forward and voluntarily offer to give themselves up to the allies to stand trial on charges of war crimes.

German War Chiefs May Surrender U-Boat Captains Flee For Safety

Many former submarine commanders are said to be fleeing the country, taking refuge in Russia or neutral nations. A brisk business is being carried on in fraudulent passports and identification papers in Weimarstrasse. The papers sell all the way from 100 to 500 marks. Occasionally a customer wears a monocle and attaches "von" to his name, but all of the names that are given are false.

When the allies make formal demand the German government probably will issue a summons, but it is doing nothing now to find the former U-boat commanders because it does not know the names on the entente's list.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The opinion of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the committee, and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, the President's chief counsel, was that the President's plan to make a speech-making trip to the Senate on Thursday, July 17, was not necessary for the committee consultation with respect to the treaty.

It was predicted that a motion inviting the President to attend some of the committee sessions as he volunteered to do in opening his address to the Senate on Thursday, July 17, was not necessary for the committee consultation with respect to the treaty.

As the seven Democratic members of the committee, all administration supporters, with Senator McCumber of North Dakota, one Republican member of the Senate, were also in favor of the President being asked to appear before the committee, it was predicted that the President would find himself in a minority if he persisted in backing up Senator Lodge's declaration that the President "will not be invited."

DAYLIGHT LAW REPEAL GIVEN WILSON'S VETO

President Tells House That Business Experience of the Country Is Against Return to Old-Time Summer Standards

Proposal to Restrict to Six Million Fund for Vocational Training of Crippled Soldiers, Sailors Also Vetoed

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, July 12.—Because of the rider repealing the daylight saving law, President Wilson today vetoed the agricultural appropriation bill. At the same time he returned to the House his veto of the sundry civil measure.

The President said that he vetoed the sundry civil measure "because of certain items of the bill which seem to me to be of the most serious consequence."

Both important supply bills, carrying millions of dollars urgently needed in government activities and already long delayed by failure in the last Congress, can now be re-passed in their present form over his veto by a two-thirds vote in both houses which today seemed unlikely. The President's objections will probably be met by amendments in the form of new bills.

SEES ECONOMIC LOSS TO COUNTRY IN REPEAL

In regard to the agricultural bill the President said the following communication to the House of Representatives: "I take the liberty of returning H. R. 3157, 'An Act Making Appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1920,' without my signature. I realize of course, the grave inconvenience which may arise from the postponement of the legislation at this time, but feel obliged to withhold my signature because of the clause which provides that 'at and after 2 o'clock a. m. on Sunday, October 26, 1919, the act entitled 'An Act to Save Daylight and to Provide Standard Time for the United States' approved March 18, 1918, be, and the same hereafter is, repealed.' I believe that the repeal of the act referred to would be of very great inconvenience to the country and I think that I am justified in saying that it would constitute a loss more than an inconvenience. It would involve a serious economic loss."

German War Chiefs May Surrender U-Boat Captains Flee For Safety

The act of March 19, 1918, to 'save daylight' resulted not only from a careful study of industrial conditions by competent men familiar with the business operations of the country, but also from a study of the happy and beneficial consequences of similar legislation in other countries, where legislation of this character has been in operation and where it has resulted as the act of March 19, 1918, has resulted in the United States, in substantial economies.

REPEAL OF DAYLIGHT ACTIVITY IN DAYLIGHT LIMITS.

"The act was intended to place the business activities of the country as near as might be within the limits of daylight throughout the year. It resulted in a saving of fuel and in substantial economy of energy, because of the very different effect of work done in the daylight and work done by artificial light."

German War Chiefs May Surrender U-Boat Captains Flee For Safety

"It, moreover, served the daily convenience of the many communities of the country in a way which gave all but universal satisfaction; and the overwhelming testimony of its value which has come to me convinces me that I should not be justified in acquiescing in its repeal."

German War Chiefs May Surrender U-Boat Captains Flee For Safety

In regard to the sundry civil bill the President in another communication to the House said:

"Under the vocational rehabilitation bill, which became law June 27, 1918, the Congress has sought to fulfill the expectations of the country that the soldier, sailor or marine disabled in the recent war should be given an opportunity to secure at the expense and under the fostering care of the federal government such training as he needs to overcome the handicap of his disability and to resume his place as a civilian able to earn a living upon something like an equal footing with those with whom he was associated before he made his great sacrifice for the honor and defense of the country."

ITALY SEEKS CONCESSION AT TIEN TSIN

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEADERSHIP TO TRIUMPH.

PARIS, July 12.—The Italian delegation has sent a note to the peace conference asking that Italy be given a concession at Tien Tsing, China, it became known today.

BY UNITED PRESS. LEADERSHIP TO TRIUMPH.

ROME, July 12.—Speaking in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday on Italy's foreign policy, Professor Enrico Ferri, Socialist deputy, declared that ex-Premier Orlando and Baron Sonnino, former foreign minister, through the press, had led the nation to believe that President Wilson had shamefully deceived the Italians.

"We know that before entering the peace conference, Wilson wished to state frankly that he could not concede to Italy all of her aspirations," Ferri said. "Sonnino asked Wilson to keep quiet.

"Now if this is true, why has the government permitted D'Annunzio to attack the President and Mr. Wilson? This is outrageous, as Wilson is fundamentally honest, like the great people he represents."

Signor Murialdo, under secretary of state, declared that agreements with the allies are not renewed before the end of July, Italy will be without bread by September.

"The solution of the food problem rests with the workers," he said. "Italy must produce more and consume less. Cereals especially must be produced."

The cabinet took measures to prevent the renewal of disorder.

FORMER MISS GAYNOR OF N. Y. SEEKS DIVORCE

RENO, July 12.—Charging cruelty and desertion, Edith Augusta Vincent, daughter of former Mayor Gaynor of New York, has filed suit here for a divorce from Henry Kermit Vincent, Vincent, a New York flapper, has filed an answer denying all of his wife's allegations.

Mrs. Vincent, with Mrs. Ralph H. Islam, her sister, took up a residence here in May. Vincent at that time was reported to be extremely ill at the Ross Sanitarium at Brentwood, Long Island.

As Edith Gaynor, daughter of one of New York's most famous mayors, she was a conspicuous figure in the smart set of the East. Her elopement with Harry Vincent in 1910 provided a romantic sensation.

2000 CLEVELAND PHONE WORKERS GO ON STRIKE

CLEVELAND, O., July 12.—Cleveland telephone operators and electrical workers went on strike at 6 o'clock this morning.

Union leaders claimed that more than 2000 operators had responded to the call, while company officials declared probably not more than 25 per cent of their employees joined in the strike.

Sleuth Killed to End Probe, Theory

SEATTLE, Wash., July 12.—That Fred A. Dowsey, government secret service agent, was murdered before he could file papers that might have given him information on the penitentiary, is the opinion of secret service men now in Seattle, who are working on the case. It is one of the most mysterious in the history of the secret service.

Valuable papers which were said to be in Dowsey's possession when he was killed in the wash room of the Securities building on the morning of May 1 were missing from the body when it was found.

At least ten secret service men are here, assigned to the case. Dowsey had been investigating an alleged swindle connected with the Shiping Board, which involved millions of dollars.

height and was to have been given greater speed and certainty by the amendment to section two of the vocational rehabilitation bill which I have today signed and which places the whole responsibility for vocational training in a single agency, virtually transferring from the war risk insurance bureau to the federal board for vocational education six million dollars with which to support disabled men in training at the generous figure of $50 a month for a single man and $100 a month for a man and his wife.

ENTIRE SYSTEM IN DANGER SAYS WILSON.

It is a matter of very grave concern, therefore, that the very moment when these disabled men are coming in constantly increasing numbers to the government to avail themselves of this general plan, there should appear in the Senate Civil Appropriation bill, which I now review, limiting clauses which will do much more than seriously cripple the entire system of vocational rehabilitation. These clauses would, in fact, if put into effect, nullify the whole purpose of the act and render its administration practically impossible.

"The section of the bill which I now review which governs the appropriation for this work provides for the payment of six million dollars for the expenses of re-habilitation, including the support of the disabled men in training, and this sum is stated to be in lieu of the appropriation contained in the act amending section two of the act approved June 27, 1918.

EIGHT MILLIONS ARE NEEDED IN APPROPRIATION.

"Inasmuch as there are already over four thousand disabled soldiers, sailors and marines in training and inasmuch as another four thousand will be put into training now that the amendment to section two has become law, it is clear that at the rate of only $50 a month a sum approximating eight millions will be required for the mere support of these men, and that under the present appropriation nothing will be available for their tuition and travel or for placing them where they can earn a living, and it will be impossible to meet the needs of the new thousands who are every week seeking the benefits of the rehabilitation act.

"In the offices of the board in the District of Columbia and in four great centers of the United States, immediate help is being given to men in need of these services and these offices are engaged for the essential purpose of keeping accurate records of the men, of caring for them in their illness, and for the various administrative work which is inseparable from the work of this kind, which must, in the present circumstances reach to every corner of the United States.

"Furthermore, the same section of the sundry civil bill places such limitations upon the salaries which the federal board for vocational education is permitted to pay, that it will inevitably result in the loss by the vocational board of a very large number of men who have made themselves especially valuable and indeed indispensable in this new work by reason of their ability, their proven general experience and their special training, and to whose advice the disabled men must look, as well as for superintending the matter of training and employment.

"Among these are the vocational advisers whose special duty it is to study the men in the hospitals, confer with them and lay out their vocational plans. These hospital cases must, if these men are to be dismissed or allowed to resign, get along entirely without such advice and supervision until they have been able after their discharge to make their way on their own initiative to the distant offices of the federal board.

"LIMITATIONS WOULD DISRUPT SERVICE."

"These serious limitations upon the amount of money available and the uses to which it is to be put in the vocational rehabilitation act, at the very moment when the disabled soldiers, sailors and marines now in the country or returning to it, are most in need of the vocational construction of the federal board. This is a matter of the gravest consequence. It cannot but have far-reaching and disastrous effects upon the plan so carefully thought out for the rehabilitation and thorough habilitation of men in the service of the country.

"I therefore return the bill with the hope that the Congress will reconsider this section of the law, restore the six millions appropriated under the act amending section two, and most liberally revise the salary limitations, so that this beneficent work may go on and go on to the end of the world. In this matter I speak the sentiments and the hopes of those who have most carefully studied the needs of the returning soldiers and who are best qualified to carry out a purpose which I am sure the country has very much at heart."

The proceeds of the loan, it has been stated, will be used for the building of railroads and for the general economic development of the country. Two Secretaries For Congressmen

WASHINGTON, July 12.—President Wilson today signed his signature to the Indian appropriation measure and to an act which stipulates that congressmen may appoint two secretaries, whose names shall be placed on roll as employees of the House.

"As I cannot say," was the only comment Fitzpatrick would make when asked if there was any likelihood of a strike being planned.

AKRON TIED UP BY CAR STRIKE

AKRON, O., July 12.—Every street car in the city of Akron, with the exception of the interurban, walked out at 5 o'clock this morning. Not a city car is running.

The first intimation the public had of the strike was the fact that the street cars were not running when they started for work this morning.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Sixteen thousand employees of the Chicago elevated and surface railway lines will present demands today for wage increases amounting to 77 per cent more than the present scale. A strike will be called, representatives of the employees declare, if the demands are refused.

Officials of the railway lines declare it will be necessary to increase fares to ten cents if the demands of the employees are granted.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—National-wide strike of steel workers loomed near today.

Labor leaders here predicted that the recommendation that a strike vote be taken, made at a meeting of representatives of 24 affiliated unions, would be formally adopted on July 20, when a conference of the union presidents will be held in Pittsburgh for the purpose of taking final action.

Representatives of the union said the object of the strike, if voted, would be to enforce recognition of the unions by the steel industry. A strike always has operated on an open shop basis.

The resolution favoring the strike stated:

"Working conditions in the steel industry are so intolerable that the workers are arising therefrom so intense that they can be remedied only by the application of the principles of collective bargaining and that all efforts have failed to bring about a settlement between the heads of the great steel organizations and the trade unions representing many thousands of organized steel workers for the purpose of establishing working conditions in the steel industry."

PORTO RICO TO SEEK U. S. LOAN

SAN JUAN, July 12. (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The Porto Rican Legislature has been asked to send a commission to Washington to ask Congress for a loan of $20,000,000 for the purpose of preventing monopoly of land in Porto Rico by large corporations. It has been proposed also that the commission should ask for a pre-arranged tariff on coffee and for the establishment of a bank for making loans to farmers.

Advocates of the proposal want the $20,000,000 for educational purposes, for irrigation, for the payment of the island's debt and other purposes.

It is also proposed that the commission should ask Congress to grant the island complete self-government, and that bills in the Legislature looking to that end have been defeated.

Blow Over Heart Kills Ballplayer

SANTA MARIA, July 12.—William Fordell Johnson, 20, was killed by a blow over the heart with a baseball during a game at Casimira, Thursday evening. He threw the ball which struck him back to the catcher and fell. Johnson's home was at Rody, Texas.

U. S. ARCHITECT WEDS JAPANESE COUNTESS'S GIRL

TOKYO, July 12.—A trans-Pacific marriage which was largely attended by Japanese and American society was that yesterday of William M. Vorles, an American architect, and Miss Makiko Iitoyo, daughter of the Japanese ambassador to the United States, formerly feudal Daimyo of the Ono clan, Bantshu. The ceremony was performed in accordance with Christian rites.

The bride after graduating from the Japan Woman's University, went to the United States where she studied at Bryn Mawr.

37 U. S. BANKS TO JOIN IN BIG CHINESE LOAN

TOKIO, June 12. (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Eighteen principal Japanese banks have organized a financial syndicate for the purpose of advancing a loan to China as a member of the proposed new four power financial group. It is announced that the Yokohama Specie Bank will represent the banking syndicate in conducting negotiations with the financial syndicate of the three other powers, the United States, Great Britain and France.

This consortium of American, French, British and Japanese banks was organized in Paris in May last at a meeting over which Thomas W. Lamont, of New York presided. Representatives of the so-called "big eight" investors in China comprising the firms of Mitsui, Mitsubishi, Okura, Kihara, Furukawa, South Manchuria Railway, Sino-Japanese Trading Co., and the Eastern Asia Industrial Company have submitted a joint statement to the Minister of Finance and the Minister for Foreign Affairs, saying that objects of investments by the new syndicate should be limited to the construction of railroads, the opening of government highways, and works of rivers and canals. All other undertakings, they declare, should be left outside the sphere of the new syndicate.

It has been stated that the amount of the loan which banking groups of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan are to make to the Chinese government probably will be about $100,000,000, to be paid in four installments of $25,000,000 each over the period of years. The proceeds of the loan, it has been stated, will be used for the building of railroads and for the general economic development of the country. Thirty-seven American banks will participate in the loan.

Nationwide Strike Is Under Discussion

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Reports that a nationwide strike was being discussed by the committee appointed at last year's convention of the American Federation of Labor to organize the workers of the iron and steel trades. The committee consists of a representative of each of the 24 trades affiliated with the federation, and is headed by John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

"As I cannot say," was the only comment Fitzpatrick would make when asked if there was any likelihood of a strike being planned.

RED PLOT TO SLAY FINNISH CHIEF NIPPED

(Exclusive Cable to the International News Service from London Daily Express).

HELSINGFORS, July 11, via London, July 12.—A plot to assassinate General Mannerheim, commander of the White Guard army and known as "the strong man of Finland," has been frustrated by the arrest of the Bolshevik conspirators today. The Reds were planning a coup d'etat to blow up the ammunition depots of the White Guard forces.

There is every prospect of important developments in the Russo-Finnish situation as the result of conferences and the deadlock may be broken forthwith. Both the Russian and Finnish "White" armies have been reinforced with men, guns and munitions.

SALONIKI, July 12.—The Greek army near Smyrna in Asia Minor is driving the Turkish forces there rapidly backward, forcing them to abandon guns in their flight, according to a statement issued by Greek army headquarters here. The Turks left behind them bodies of 84 Greek women and children in a mutilated condition, the communique declares.

RHODE ISLAND TO LEGALIZE 4 PER CENT BEER

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 12.—Two and three-quarters per cent beer may be intoxicating for folks in other states, but not for the inhabitants of "Little Rhody."

Police commissioners here today announced that they would soon issue licenses on the theory that beer of 4 per cent alcoholic strength was not intoxicating in any other state.

The Rhode Island state legislature some months ago passed a law defining 4 per cent beer as non-intoxicating.

proof of kidney trouble, and if there are dizzy spells, headaches, nervous, despondent attacks; a dull, tired condition and disordered kidney action, get after the cause. Take things easier for a while and use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has been tried out for you by thousands. What satisfied users say is the best proof of Doan's reliability.

San Pablo Avenue James B. Wrench, tailor, 5657 San Pablo Ave., says: "The pains in my back between my shoulders had bothered me for a long time and caused me so much discomfort I could hardly sit still. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they greatly benefited me. I no longer suffered from the pain in my back and the pains in my head left, too." MORE THAN FOUR YEARS LATER Mr. Wrench added: "My back and kidneys have been in the best of condition ever since Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of kidney complaint. I always back up what I have said about Doan's because it's the truth."	Twenty-seventh Avenue Mrs. James M. Davis, 2021 Twenty-seventh Ave., says: "I first used Doan's Kidney Pills about six years ago while living in San Jose. I had pain and weakness in the small of my back with a sort of giving-out feeling. As I lay down, I showed signs of dis-order and I was confident the trouble with my back was due to these organs being weak. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I used a box. I was freed of the complaint." Over two years later Mr. Davis said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble and my kidneys have been healthy, active and in a normal condition ever since. Every time I hear anyone complain of their kidneys, I tell them to try Doan's."	Birch Street C. W. Corzatt, retired carpenter, 9302 Birch St., says: "My back was in bad shape. Right across the small of my back a sharp, cutting pain would catch me when I least expected it. My kidneys were in poor condition and the secretions were unnatural. When a man's kidneys don't act right he feels out of sorts and that's just the way I felt until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. In a short time Doan's went to the seat of the trouble and flushed out my kidneys. I was relieved of all signs of kidney trouble and felt better in every way."
Twelfth Street Mrs. Frank Dean, 1474 Twelfth St., says: "My back and kidneys gave me a lot of trouble. There was a heavy, dull, aggravating pain across the small of my back, which made life miserable for me. Housework which required stooping was almost im-possible and sharp pains would shoot up and down my back when I bent over. Dizzy spells were com-mon and specks would float before my eyes and blur my sight. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family with good results and I tried them myself. They soon had me feeling better and continued use of Doan's removed the complaint."	Twenty-fifth Avenue Josephus Lee, shoemaker, 2335 Twenty-fifth Ave., says: "At night when I would lie down I was annoyed by pains in my back. The trouble was con-stant with me during the day, too. Besides this tired aching, I had pains in my hips. Close confinement for hours at the bench in a stooped position is what I think caused the trouble. I lost rest at night on account of having to get up to pass the kidney sec-cretions. Doan's Kidney Pills entirely relieved me of all the suffering and annoyance." OVER SEVEN YEARS LATER, Mr. Lee said: "I am as firm, healthy and vigorous as ever. I certainly wouldn't swap my kidneys for any other. I still use Doan's now and then and they keep my kidneys in good shape."	East Fourteenth Street Mrs. Emma Y. Baird, 9410 E. Fourteenth St., says: "I suffered from a severe attack of kidney com-plaint. It came on very quickly and I believe the heat and overwork caused the trouble. My back was very painful and I knew from other symptoms my kidneys were disordered. I knew the value of Doan's Kidney Pills and used some. After taking four boxes, every symptom had left and I was free from every sign of kidney trouble." OVER FIFTEEN YEARS LATER, Mrs. Baird said: "My kidneys have been strong and my health good, ever since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble. Doan's made life worth living for me."

A Letter-Play

Wanted—Good Writers

To J. O. B. HOMELAND

One of the popular public games is the writing game. Good players are always in demand and usually well paid, but the poor ones had better do something else.

Be careful, however, right there, for every good writer has sometime been a poor writer—a poor writer with a wonderful ambition to be a better one and patience to bear up under early delays and buffetings.

The prize for literary material that is fit to publish isn't gained in a minute. It may take a few years or a few score years. Some like William De Morgan, have to work hard and wait till they are after sixty.

Everybody, or nearly everybody, wants to write—poems, books, or plays. In fact, is writing them. Nat Goodwin, it is said, once made this statement to a friend on a trolley car. The friend denied it. "I'll prove it," said Goodwin. So as they passed out of the car he stopped and asked the conductor, in a friendly and confidential sort of way, "How's the new play getting on?" "Pretty good," replied the conductor, "But I'm having the devil's own time with the second act."

Yes, Jim, they're nearly all at it, and out of the nearly-all the good ones finally appear—just as the bushers furnish the stars for the big b. b. Leagues. The editors are very dependent upon the literary bushers, for known writers have a way of pissing from view and their places must be filled.

I sincerely believe the editor is more tickled when he finds a "bully new writer" than the bully new writer is when he finds the editor who likes, and will buy and pay for, his stuff.

Young writers are usually looking for someone to help them to get their work published. That's a hard proposition. You can't help a young writer much in any way. He's got to help himself into success and prominence—by reading carefully the best work of the masters; by writing and writing again up to his very best mark; by then setting a higher mark for himself; and finally by submitting his work over and over again in different markets till it lands.

This is the only way to get to be a star player in the Literary League.

REVELATIONS of a WIFE

ADELE GARRISON

I gave him restoratives, and then taking the coat from his head, cleansed the wounds and examined them. Even my limited experience told me that there was no real need of a surgeon. There were several superficial cuts, which looked as if they had been made with a sharp knife, and one rather ugly wound jagged but not deep, evidently caused by a blow from a stone or other rough missile.

When I had finally convinced myself that every gash was antiseptically clean I bandaged his head, with Katie's help, and sent her back to the kitchen with directions to make a strong cup of coffee as quickly as possible and bring it back with her.

As soon as she was out of earshot I gave William another spoonful of stimulant and said quietly:

"Now, William, before Katie gets back, tell me everything that has happened."

William Trumbull looked up at me with the pathetic, grateful eyes of a dog bared it was all right, and banded head upon the pillow of his cot.

"I'm awful sorry I didn't catch that fellow and hold him for ye, Miss Grammie," he said remorsefully, "but I couldn't make it."

The old fellow's eyes brightened. "Well, I guess I got something pretty near, then," he answered. "I'll just begin at the beginning and tell ye everything'n right down to now."

My first impulse was to demand the important information he had. But I hadn't the heart to do it. William was having the time of his life, wounded and suffering though he was. He was the hero of a dramatic tale which he was about to tell. To deprive him of his recitation would be a torture I hadn't the courage to inflict.

"All right, William," I returned, "but hurry, and remember, when you hear Katie coming to stop talking until she goes away again."

"That's sense, Miss Grammie," he said earnestly. "Katie's a good girl, but she hasn't no headpiece on her, just as I like to tell the things as they are."

FOLLOWING THE SCENT

I had hard work to control my risibilities at William's patronizing air, especially as I knew the good-humored content Katie had for "William." But it didn't suit my purpose to have Katie's inquisitive little nose poked further into the unpleasant affair than I could prevent, so I was glad of William's attitude.

"I tell ye, I never cud hev got that fellow if it hadn't bin for Pete," William began, and Miss Grammie, having reached down and petted the head of the bull terrier lying on the floor beside his cot. The dog turned his head and licked the hand, but with the dignity that hedges a blooded bull terrier, made no noisy demonstration of affection.

"That coddler, he sure could run," William went on. "By the time me an' Pete reached the hedge, he was clean out of sight. But Pete he seemed to know what was up, an' I don't believe no bloodhound could have done better nor Pete done. He jest trotted along an' followed Pete, an' by-an'-by I caught sight of the fellow, dodgin' into a clump of bushes down there by the trolley track where there hasn't no house any where round."

"He hadn't seed us, so me an' Pete we crep' up jest as quiet as Indians to the other side of the bank, an' there, who do y' spouse I see?"

"She's that Draper gal that used to live here in Marvin's. She hadn't bin here in a long time, but I'd know her anywhere. Orful pretty gal, but zosh, how high an' mighty she alius was!"

William's tone expressed lofty disapprobation of "that Draper gal."

"Are you sure you saw Miss Draper?" I queried sharply, although there was a sickening certainty in my heart that the old chap was absolutely right in his recognition, and that the woman I so dreaded was actively engaged in plotting against me.

William looked a trifle offended. "I guess I kin see straight yet, Miss Grammie, if I can't see very far," he answered, and then Katie's entrance with a cup of steaming coffee put a temporary stop to his story.

UNDER HER HAT

By Juanita Hamel

FROM under her hat SHE sees the whole wide world of those who walk or ride, go by. UNDER HER HAT HE beholds all of his world reflected in her lovely face, mirrored in her tender eyes—the frame from which comes ONE word which makes his life complete.

YES—you've guessed it—that's THE word.

GATTS BEDTIME STORY

(By Howard R. Garis)

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggly Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, was out walking near his hollow stump bungalow, sort of looking for an adventure, he happened to pass the pen house where lived Curly and Floppy Twistytail, the piggie boys.

And, as Mr. Longears stood there, looking up at the chimney to see if any smoke was coming out, and wondering whether he ought to go in and pay Mrs. Twistytail a visit, he heard a sort of crying noise.

"My! That sounds like trouble!" thought the bunny. "I hope neither Floppy nor Curly is ill. I must go and see."

So he gave his pink nose a twinkle or two, to make sure it was all right, and then he knocked on the door of the piggie home.

"Come in," called Mrs. Twistytail, and when Uncle Wiggly entered he saw the pig lady sitting beside a bed of straw, and in it were lying Curly and Floppy.

"Don't tell me they are both a-cryin' the bunny gal that used to live here in Marvin's. She hadn't bin here in a long time, but I'd know her anywhere. Orful pretty gal, but zosh, how high an' mighty she alius was!"

"A woman!" he said, dramatically.

"What?" I exclaimed faintly, for my intuition told me who this woman must be, even before William spoke again.

"Yep, a woman," the old chap returned, evidently enjoying my perturbation. "An' what's more, I know who she is."

I gave him a look. William was getting to know altogether too much about the plots and difficulties with which I was beset. But I was helpless to alter the situation.

"She's that Draper gal that used to live here in Marvin's. She hadn't bin here in a long time, but I'd know her anywhere. Orful pretty gal, but zosh, how high an' mighty she alius was!"

William's tone expressed lofty disapprobation of "that Draper gal."

JULY TWELVE.

MARTIAL MARITAL DIALOGUES
H—
Lurhythma, I don't like the way you treat me.
You leave my patience in a doleful state.
At seven-forty-five you said you'd meet me.
And here it's nearly seven-forty-eight.

SHE.
Now come, my Doloreso, keep your shirt on!
Hast plumb forgot that day when you, in tears,
On bended knee, with hand on heart,
Told me for little me a thousand years?

HE.
Ah, ha! light of my eye, I'm not forgetting your recollection down the line.
Remember, ere your temper waxes
fretful,
We weren't married then, Lurhythma, mine.

Dear Almanac:
I am writing this from Devil Junction, where it has been so dull since July 1 that the town's two policemen have taken jobs in ice cream stands, emporiums, etc. Again, there is F. B. Thrasher, who is a new motorcycle cop in Reno, Nev. All of which is preliminary to my remark that, inasmuch as predictions are confidently made of further generous increases in the price of foodstuff, isn't it up to somebody to do as the Romans do in Rome and organize a League of Rations?

THE CRAFT.
There is the snow cream," said the bunny, when it was made. "Now I'll set it out on the back steps to get a little colder, and it will be ready to eat."

"And while it's getting ready will you tell us a story?" begged Curly.

"One about a big black bear who was very nice, and didn't bite souse off your ears," added Floppy.

"Yes, I'll tell you a story," said Uncle Wiggly. So he told the piggie boys a nice story about Mr. Stubtail, the gentleman bear father of Nedtail and Beekie, and how once Mr. Stubtail got stuck in a hollow log and how his wife had to claw a hole in it to let him out.

"And they lived happily forever after," said Uncle Wiggly, "and now I guess the snow cream is ready."

He went out on the back steps to get it, but no sooner had he begun to scratch it so the bunny cat came and saw him for short) gave a howl and cried:

"Oh, my paws are frozen! My paws are frozen!" and away he ran, not getting a bit of the snow cream, so there was plenty for Curly and Floppy. And it made their sore throats all well—Dr. Possum said it did.

"If the box of tacks doesn't go sliding up and down the looking glass and scratch it so the bunny cat can't see to wash her face, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the spinning wheel."

Just Rolls by EDGAR A. GUEST

I'd rather see a sermon than to hear one any day.

I'd rather one should walk with me than merely tell the way.

The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear.

Fine counsel is confusing, but examine the high advice you give.

And the best of all the preachers are the men who live their creeds.

For to see good put in action is what everybody needs.

I can soon learn how to do it if you'll let me see it done.

I can watch your hands in action, but your tongue too fast may run.

And the lectures you deliver may be very wise and true.

But I'd rather see you do, serving what you do.

For I may misunderstand you and but there's no misunderstanding how you act and how you live.

When I see a deed of kindness I am eager to be kind.

When a weaker brother stumbles, and a strong man stays behind.

Just to see if I can help him, then to become as big and thoughtful as I know that friend to be.

And all travelers can witness that the best of guides today is not the one who tells them, but the one who shows the way.

One good man teaches many, men believe what they behold.

One deed of kindness noticed is worth forty that are told.

Who stands with men of honor learns to hold his honor dear.

For right living speaks a language which to everyone is clear.

Though on an able speaker charms with his eloquence, I say, I'd rather see a sermon than to hear one any day.

Ireland to Adopt Gaelic Language
DUBLIN, July 12.—Extreme importance is attached by the Sinn Féin leaders to the Irish language question. This has been made evident in several speeches lately.

Arthur Griffith, member of Parliament, said they were only building on quicksand unless Ireland became again an Irish-speaking and Irish-thinking nation.

Irish speaking Ireland could never exist; it would remain in mental slavery to those who were now its "political oppressors."

COTTAGE CHEESE.
1 quart of thick, sour milk.
1 quart of boiling water.
1 tablespoonful of salt butter.
12 teaspoonfuls of salt.

Put the milk in a large bowl, add the boiling water and let stand for five minutes. Then pour into a cheesecloth bag and let stand for several hours or over night. When it begins to whey strain through a fine napkin, add three teaspoonfuls of cream, salt, white pepper, and form into small balls.

Lucrezia Bori ON BEAUTY

Summer is the time of delightful outdoor sports. Golf, tennis, swimming, riding or motoring are healthful and beauty-giving pastimes, because in enjoying them you breathe an abundance of fresh air, which quickens your color, brings a new sparkle to your eyes and adds grace to your step, but your complexion may suffer if you don't take care to protect it.

Tan and freckles are considered to be attractive in moderation only, while a fair, smooth skin is always to be desired.

If your skin is becoming tanned through exposure to the sun you should use both a bleaching cream and an emollient. The bleaching cream will soften and whiten your skin and the emollient cream will be applied to your face, neck and hands before you expose them to the sun.

One of the best skin bleachers is made partly of cucumber juice. Cucumber cream which is said to possess great bleaching qualities is made of:

Almond oil.....4 ounces
Sour-milk.....1 ounce
White wax.....2 ounces
Cucumber juice.....2 ounces

Select cucumbers ripe enough for table use and chop them fine, pour them in a paste and extract the juice by squeezing through a jelly bag. Perfume with a half drachm of violet extract. After melting the wax and spermaceti and adding the almond oil, pour in this cucumber juice and beat into a cream.

Lettuce and iris creams made in the same way are said to possess special efficacy in bleaching a tanned skin. To make lettuce cream, several heads of lettuce should be soaked with boiling water. Let them stand a few moments, then pour the water off and pound the lettuce to a paste in a mortar or earthen bowl. Strain through a cloth.

To make the iris cream, extract the juice from the fresh flowers and the whitish parts of their stems. Obtain enough from the deep purple flower petals to tint the cream a violet color. Violet perfume is suited to both of these creams.

In the above formula iris or lettuce juice is substituted for that of the cucumbers.

If you anoint your face at night with bleaching cream and then expose your skin unprotected to the sun next day you will do more harm than good, because these bleaching creams soften your skin and make it more susceptible to the action of the sun. Before going out you should apply an emollient cream to your face and wipe it off so as to leave a coating of cream and apply an agreeable face powder as a protection to your skin.

The following ingredients make an excellent protective face powder:

Rice flour.....6 ounces
Rice starch.....6 ounces
Carbonated magnesia.....3 ounces
Boric acid, pulverized.....1 1/2 ounces
Essence of rose, the powdered.....15 drams
Essence of bergamot.....30 drops

Mingle the essence with the carbonate of magnesia and then pulverize and mix together. Apply this powder over the cream, a little while before going out, and put it on sparingly. Then the last thing before you go out wipe off the superfluous powder with a piece of soft chamois.

Your skin will thus be greatly protected from the intense action of the sun or wind.

During the flower season any fragrant blossoms, such as roses or violets, may be buried in this powder, or in one made of rice or corn meal. Renew the flowers every twenty-four hours for a week, when the powder should be delightfully perfumed.

SOCIALISTS' PIN FEES.
BERLIN, July 12.—A weekly contribution for all women party members equivalent to ten-thirtieth of one American cent and for male members of one cent and two-thirtieths has been voted by the Majority Socialists as a condition of party membership.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU HAD TO RUN ANOTHER MAN'S BUSINESS?

TRY RUNNING A GROCERY STORE OR GROCETERIA

Here's a chance to "experiment" with a business—and get paid for it.

Assume you're suddenly made owner of a grocery or groceteria. It's up to you to make it pay—if you can. Maybe you'll go broke. Maybe you'll make it a big business success. It all depends on whether you have IDEAS.

And these ideas may be valuable to others—so THE TRIBUNE is after those ideas.

Write THE TRIBUNE a letter of not more than 150 words, telling what YOU would do if you had a grocery store, what reforms you would put into effect, what new things and selling methods you would introduce; what changes you would suggest.

All letters in this contest must be in THE TRIBUNE office by 10 a. m. July 17. THE TRIBUNE will award valuable prizes for the best letters received, these prizes to be two $5.00 grocery orders from California Grocery, 1448 S. Ohio, and Key Grocery Co., 2711 N. Washington.

Winners' names and addresses will be printed one week from next Sunday.

Write on one side of the paper only. Address all letters to: BUSINESS IDEA DEPARTMENT, TRIBUNE, OAKLAND, CAL.

MAY BE YOUR IDEA WILL HELP BETTER THAT BUSINESS! TRY IT!

Household Hints

Tomato Catsup.
1 peck of fully ripe tomatoes.
3 large onions.
1/2 cupful of salt.
1 cupful of brown sugar.
1 cupful of mixed spices, whole.
1/2 cupful of dry mustard.
2 teaspoonfuls of cayenne.
2 tablespoonfuls of paprika.
1 clove of garlic.
1 quart of vinegar.

Cut the tomatoes in half, slice the onions and cook them together in kettle slowly for one hour. Then press through a sieve, add spices and cook rapidly until thick. Boil together the sugar and vinegar and add to the tomato mixture. Cook until thick. Test for proper thickness by dropping a little water on the catsup on a plate and observe if water separates. If water does not mix with it the catsup is sufficiently thick. Pour into sterilized jars, and when cool seal with melted paraffin.

The spices should not be dropped in whole, but mixed together in a flannel bag and the bag removed just before the catsup is finished. Here is a recipe for mixed spices suitable for catsup:

Home-Made Chow Chow.
2 quarts of green tomatoes.
2 quarts of small onions.
2 cucumbers.
2 cauliflowerers.
4 red peppers.
2 quarts of string beans.
Chop all the vegetables and place over night in a brine made of 1 pound of salt and 2 1/2 quarts of water. In the morning bring the whole mixture to a boil and continue boiling 15 minutes. Bring 1 gallon of vinegar to boiling point. Mix together:

1 cupful of fine mustard.
1 cupful of brown sugar.
2 tablespoonfuls of flour.
1 tablespoonful of celery seed.
Water.

This should be mixed to a paste, added to vinegar and boiled until thick. Drain the chopped vegetables, pour the hot, spicy mixture over all, mix well and pour into jars, sealing while hot.

Spices for Catsup or Chili Sauce.
3 tablespoonfuls of black pepper.
3 tablespoonfuls of mustard seeds.
1 tablespoonful of cinnamon.
1 tablespoonful of allspice.
1 tablespoonful of cloves.
1 tablespoonful of Chili Sauce.

24 large tomatoes.
6 green peppers.
4 large onions.
9 whole cloves.
3 tablespoonfuls of salt.
8 tablespoonfuls of sugar.
1 tablespoonful of cinnamon.
2 cupfuls of vinegar.

Chop the tomatoes, the onions and the peppers and cook with spices for about an hour, stirring frequently. When thick, pour into jars or wide-necked bottles and seal with melted paraffin.

commission. Bills providing for a budget have already been introduced in both chambers of Congress and there is a considerable sentiment that they should be taken up in the present special session.

But this much may be said in favor of the special commission: Despite the fact that there can be no reasonable objection to a well coordinated budget system, the work of producing such a system with the minimum of faults is considerable and beset with many difficulties. It is a work that calls for a high quality of knowledge and experience and the vision of true statesmanship. The advocates of the special commission appreciated the extent of the problem, and, while entertaining the most friendly disposition toward the budget idea, desire first of all that adopted methods for its practical application shall be effective and efficient.

The budget question is certain to be disposed of in the first regular session of the Sixty-sixth Congress, which convenes next December, and in view of the fact that the country has waited so long for this modernizing feature of government, it will not complain if the further delay of six months or so results in a well-considered, efficient accounting and control system of governmental appropriations and expenditures.

WIRE CONTROL TO END.
President Wilson having signed yesterday the joint resolution of Congress providing for the return to the private owners of the telephone and telegraph utilities, government control of these means of communication will come to an end on July 31. It was provided in the resolution that it should become effective at the end of the month in which it was approved.

Thus the country is to endure only three weeks longer Mr. Burselson's dictatorship over the telephone and telegraph services. The regime of government mismanagement will have lasted a little more than eight months. The properties were seized shortly after the signing of the armistice last November. Only trouble, extra expense upon the public and inferior service has resulted from this unwarranted government control.

It is possibly unfair to charge the government with all the distress that has accompanied the wire dictatorship—just how much injustice would be done is not ascertainable. The executive heads of the telephone and telegraph corporations presented with alacrity the proposition to boost the price of service, they worked wherever the opportunity was presented to use government control to promote their ambitions for monopoly, and they used the government freely to explain their indifference to the public in matters of extending and maintaining service.

But that Mr. Burselson proceeded with conspicuous disregard for the public, the users of the utilities, there can be no question. He has boosted rates without any showing of necessity. Under his regime the service has been seriously disorganized and suspended in many parts of the country. At present the telephone service is seriously crippled or altogether suspended in all the Pacific Coast States.

However, the telephone, telegraph and cable utilities were not seized by the government in the interest of public service. They were taken over in order to have them more completely at the disposal of the government in connection with spreading information of the peace delegation in Paris, and especially the utterances of the head of the delegation, the President.

This object of the administration was served perfectly, but at what a heavy cost! Abandonment of government operation of public service utilities will be greeted with rejoicing. Speed the glad day! The President was responsible for the seizure of the utilities. He could have returned them without waiting for action by Congress.

The German National Assembly has ratified the peace treaty by a vote of 208 to 115. The opposition votes represent the junker monarchists and militarists. Practically all the representatives of the people—the proletariat and the bourgeoisie, as the Bolsheviks characterize them—voted for peace. As soon as the technical acts of promulgation of the proceeding in the Assembly at Weimar are performed Germany will be entitled to treatment as a peaceful power. If she earnestly sets to the work of fulfilling the peace conditions she will receive such consideration.

THE LATEST UNEMPLOYED.

Records of the United States employment service in Chicago show that a considerable number of ex-bartenders are applying for work. Some of them are finding work quickly. "We placed one expert bartender as cashier in a big industrial plant," said an official, "and many others were given jobs of various kinds. The saloon men who have applied so far are all in decent earnest about their jobs. They feel they will have to make good all over again, and want to start in that direction quickly."

On the face of things one would say that the closing of the saloons would release a good deal of special talent and ability which various classes of employers will be able to utilize. Aside from skill in the gentle art of mixing drinkables, it takes a number of valuable and serviceable qualities to make a good bartender. He has to be a bit of a diplomat. He must know how to deal with men according to their individual temperaments. In certain classes of establishments he must have real decision of character in order to maintain good order. His habits are likely to be steady, because the nature of the business demands it. Comparison of the bartender with the men ranged in front of the bar does not always result to the disadvantage of the dispenser of drinks.

The problem of employment for ex-bartenders and brewery workers may take a little time for its solution, but it should not prove difficult. At present the man who really wants to work can readily find remunerative employment. There never was a better time than the present for a man of determination to begin to make good all over again in a new direction.—Chicago Daily News

NOTES and COMMENT

Oakland enjoys additional fame. One of its respected residents was elected president of the International Association of Lions Clubs in its recent session at Chicago. The name exemplifies the city's class.

The liner Grampian, with 750 passengers and 350 crew, got off luckily with two killed when it struck an iceberg, especially as it was not materially injured. The fate of the Titanic is instantly recalled in this connection.

That Caruso's wine cellar has been raided may sound like news from the United States, but it isn't. It is from Florence, and the raiders were not impelled by a thirst, but by a hunger.

It is too soon for reliable statistics as to prohibition's bearing on crime. The accounts that appear of depopulated jails and decreased general law-breaking are probably beyond what statistics will eventually show, but the trend will be that way.

The price of pork continues to ascend. The sale at the Tulare semi-monthly sale was 60 cents higher than any previous quotation, and $1.50 higher than ruling prices in San Francisco, being $18.70 per hundred. The pig may be in a way to become the king of beasts, in a sense.

The commander of R-31 observes the police amenities. It has been fully told how the big dirigible encountered all kinds of adverse weather and how in consequence the fuel supply was all but exhausted through the resultant delay; yet one of the farwell observations before starting on the return journey was to thank the weather man!

Hurley has resigned as chairman of the United States Shipping Board. Is there a general purgation in this branch of the public service to stand from under when the impending investigation arrives?

Alameda has been noted for several objects of interest, but now comes to the fore with one altogether unusual. It is a blond mule, whose voice is mistaken for the moaning of a windmill, and who bemoans on railroad trucks, to the interruption of traffic. That such a performer should be a blond is not the least interesting feature.

The list of eighteen California resorts in the United States Railroad Administration's advertisements do not by any means include them all, but comprehends some familiar places where recreation is to be enjoyed and health regained and which may be reached direct by rail. At that they constitute an array that cannot be matched.

The cynic, noting that a Dakotan has been nominated for Assistant Attorney-General might spring the query: "How now?" is the Texan supply exhausted?

The vogue of elder has come up with a bound. Long years ago it figured in presidential campaigns, and it is in a way again to supply a want that is bound to be acutely felt.

Martinez celebrated John D. Rockefeller's 50th birthday on Tuesday by witnessing the destruction by fire of one of his oil and gasoline distributing stations. Damage is estimated at $50,000, one thousand for every year of the billionaire's life.

Observation from the Redding Searchlight that may please the ladies: "While a man is never quite sure that a woman will make him a good wife, he never for one moment doubts that she is getting an ideal husband."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

It does not often happen that two men named Schlesinger register at the same hotel on the same day and send their trunks to the hotel valet to be pressed. Nor does it often happen that a man may have all of San Francisco or else the story. How'd you feel if you were Schlesinger No. 1, to reach down in your pocket and find $1000 in bills you didn't know were there? And if you were the other Schlesinger, how would it strike you to be minus $1000 that you knew you had? Wrong pants returned to wrong Schlesinger, that's all.—Stockton Record.

Argument over the percentage of alcohol necessary to make beer an intoxicating beverage apparently is getting to be a habit with at least a few editors. The other day Governor Stephens passed a per centum law for admission to the bar, and less than a dozen newspapers of the state heralded the news thusly: "Governor Passes 100 Per Cent Bar Test."—Bakersfield Californian.

The popularity of Three Rivers as a place for holding parties is proving considerable of a boomerang, it seems, and all on account of the fact that there are so many persons on this mundane sphere whose early training "back at the knees," who are unimpaired of the golden rule, or of anything else save utter selfishness and absolute disregard for the rights of others, even if those who welcome them to their attractive locality to enjoy themselves.—Visalia Times.

After reporting that the little trouble down on the Mexican border didn't amount to anything and that it was over as soon as it started, Secretary Baker proceeded to announce a drive for 25,450 men for border service. THE COVENANT

The agonies of all God's years have yearned
For this one healing hour. The mute far moan
Of mothers for their needless dead; the groan
Of bruised soldiers sacrificed and spurned
To glaze a king's mad lust; child laughter turned
To sob; in shrunken bellies, hunger-known;
The anguish of all Calvaries, have flown
Moth-like to this, as to a light that burned.
And if the promise of this pregnant hour
Be all fulfilled 'twill brighten sun-shine, speed
The joy of little children into wide
Swift laughter, deepen mother love.
All hearts with magic for the kinder deed.
God grant fulfillment be not then denied!

AMERICANIZE THE WOMEN.

The justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia have set an example which would be well for justices sitting in naturalization courts to follow. They see to it that wives, who automatically become citizens when their husbands become naturalized, are Americanized.

It is not too much to say that the typical foreign-born wife and mother has been an obstruction to progress, often a pitifully bewildered and sulken one, doomed to a privation of the respect and authority due her in her own household—the glorious tragedy of the making of present-day America.

The district justices suggest that, when a petitioner for citizenship applies for aid at the school in learning the things required of him, he take his wife with him, so that she may have opportunity to make herself familiar with American institutions and that she accompany him to court for the observance of the formalities attached to the naturalization process.

This action of the district justices has been urged upon all courts having naturalization jurisdiction. The legislature of the State of Oregon has memorialized Congress in the matter. Now that the proposed woman suffrage is in a fair way to be ratified, legislation providing the same qualifications for women as for men is demanded.—Buffalo News.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

"Broken Veins"—The Way Science Now Treats Them

(Johns Hopkins University)
BY DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D.

"Broken" veins are varicose veins—channels for the venous blood which have become twisted and turfed. Commonly enough, varicose veins are disregarded because they are sometimes temporary and mend themselves. Often, however, they remain permanent in men and women who stand a great deal, who eat more than they should or who are indoors most of the time. Rubber stockings, elastic bandages, pressure tapes and strappings are often necessary to remedy varicose veins. That is to say, until Dr. F. W. Kappelman of Milwaukee devised his new plan of relief.

The method is the use of hot salt water in a definite strength as an injection. The advantages of Dr. Kappelman's procedure are the ease, facility and swiftness of the whole plan. It is not tedious, requires only a few minutes and is simple of accomplishment. There is little cutting, no loss of sensation, no interference with the nerves or lymphatics, the length of stay in bed after the injection is reduced to a few days, and the results are excellent.

The doctor's equipment for this method is relatively simple—a thermometer to register the 160 deg. Fahrenheit, the temperature of the water used; two sterile rubber horse bandages, 6 feet rubber hose on an irrigation flask and the usual knife and forceps.

The veins are caught up after the esthetic has become effective and each little twisted part is snipped off for two inches. The leg is then elevated. The blood, usually a small amount in the twisted veins, is expelled through the elastic bandage and the veins are collapsed by means of the rubber horse bandage, which is wound very tightly around the leg from the ankle to just below the knee.

The 3 per cent solution of salt is held in the flesh 3 feet above the cut vein. It is then allowed to flow through the tubing into the vein as the bandage is unwound. The aim of the operation is to obliterate the turn and twisted opening of the vein. This it triumphantly does. The blood is kept out of the veins while the salt water is introduced. This is all carried out in the manner mentioned.

Varicose veins are troublesome things. Whenever there is a congestion in the kidneys, heart or other internal structure, varicose veins may assert their unwelcome presence. They are painful affections, which greatly interfere with work, efficiency and locomotion. Any one with these whirling of red blotches and lines cannot be as productive an individual or as good a worker as he would be otherwise.

HOUSTON SEES BIG PROGRESS IN CALIFORNIA

Secretary of Agriculture David F. Houston has discovered marvelous agricultural progress in California in three short years. So he declared today at the residence of Professor and Mrs. Adolph C. Miller in Berkeley, where, with Mrs. Houston, he is visiting for a few days while he completes an inspection of this part of the state. Houston, who is another detail of California development, he said, has enlisted the warm interest of his department.

Secretary Houston expected to leave this afternoon for a tour through the northern portion of the state. He will be accompanied by Colonel Henry T. Graves, chief forester for California, but he will return to Berkeley before continuing his tour.

STUDIES STATE PROBLEMS.
Secretary Houston has just finished an investigation of southern California problems where he was attended by the district forester, Colonel Du Bois, M. Hans Sulzer, Swiss minister to the United States, and Mrs. Sulzer, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Roland Boyden. They accompanied the Houston west. They have been in California for about two weeks.

Returning from his tour of the northern part of the state, the secretary will go to Salt Lake City to attend a livestock convention to be held there later this month. On conditions in California and generally under his control, the secretary said: "California is interested in practically everything the department of agriculture does."

"First, the great forest reserves in this state, with their vital influences on water power projects and irrigation schemes. Then the development of roads on which any department in co-operation with the states is fostering. On forest roads and trails we are planning to spend $19,000,000."

ON GIGANTIC SCALE.
"California is composed of extremes on a gigantic scale. Men take a great proportion of their characteristics from environment," said Houston. "That means, in my estimation, that Californians in their artistic and intellectual distinctiveness will be developed to a unique point in the country."

"The most remarkable evidences of our increased wealth is found in

MARINE SHOTS PRISONER IN LEG WITH SHOTGUN

VALLEJO, July 12.—William Rollands, a naval prisoner, was shot in the right leg late yesterday afternoon by Lloyd Fickes, a marine, who was guarding a party of prisoners engaged in sweeping the street in front of the navy yard postoffice.

Fickes is said to have shouted to Rollands to work faster. A moment later he fired at Rollands. It is said, with a sawed-off shotgun, the gunshot entering Rollands' right leg.

The rest of the prisoners came promptly to attention until an officer arrived on the scene and took charge of the affair.

First Oakland Police Patrol Driver Dies

After an illness of more than a year, caused by injuries received in an automobile accident, Patrolman George Green, former wagon officer of the Eastern Police Station, is dead at Morgan Hill, according to word received here today. He was 40 years old, and lived at 340 Santa Clara avenue. He was released from the force several months ago, when it was found that he could not recover from his illness, caused by internal injuries.

Green drove the first motor patrol in the Oakland police department. He was also known as a yachtsman, being a member of the Yacht Club. The funeral arrangements are being made by the Oakland police.

SALESMAN IS BANKRUPT

A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed by Paul C. Read, salesman of Oakland, in the Federal court here today listing debts of $3170.35, no assets. The principal creditor is Daniel Read, of the Central National bank of Oakland, with claims totaling $1550.

The following facts: There are 25,000,000 more acres under cultivation in this country now than before the war. Since the war our farmers, under the leadership of the department of agriculture, have increased the number of horses and mules by one and three-quarters millions, cows by two and a half millions, cattle by six millions.

Houston passed nine days in the Sierras, the only word reaching him from the outside world being that Dempsey had beaten Willard. "Few realize," said Houston, "that out of the 25,000,000 acres of land in the country a great number are in the west. I was here three years ago and I see that the state has progressed marvelously."

INSPECTOR JOB FOR THOMPSON IS OPPOSED

The ordinance adopted by the city council yesterday to establish an inspector's place in the police department, so that Fenton G. Thompson, who claims the place under the charter, might be appointed, will probably fail of that result, according to developments in the Civil Service Board offices today. Three assistant inspectors are on an existing eligible list for an inspectorship, and these, the Civil Service Board holds, would have the right to first claim over Thompson, who is rated as a patrolman, but who claims an inspector's rating under the charter on the ground that he had been a detective under the old city charter.

Two other men are in the same position as Thompson as to claims, according to the Civil Service Board, and these, too, would have to be classified if Thompson were given the rating, according to members of the board.

SERVED AS DETECTIVE

Thompson, who was temporarily retired while the old charter was in effect because of illness, served then as a detective, although he drew a patrolman's pay. On his return to the force he demanded an inspector's rating on the ground that detectives had been designated inspectors under the new charter. Harry Gilbert won by court decision a corporal's rating on the ground that he had been assigned as a jailer. According to City Attorney H. L. Hagan this decision is the precedent that makes it practically mandatory on the city to name Thompson as an inspector.

The Civil Service Board refused, despite Hagan's decision, to classify Thompson as an inspector. Hagan filed a new opinion with Commissioner F. E. Morse, backing Thompson, and on Morse's recommendation yesterday the council created the office.

MAY SEEK CHIEF'S JOB

W. W. Morse appoints Thompson to the office, however, the Civil Service Board members hold that they cannot confirm this, as there is an existing eligible list entitled under the charter to a prior right to assignment. Assistant Inspector W. J. Emigh and several others are on this list created by examination. Thompson says he will bring mandamus proceedings if necessary to force the Civil Service Board to classify him.

According to political gossip about the city hall, Thompson, if confirmed as an inspector, would be a candidate for chief of police. He is said to have been actively supported for the chief by friends before Commissioner Morse, who is rumored that it would be impossible to name a patrolman to that office. While Thompson is rated as a patrolman, he has always served as a plain clothes man, and is the detective in charge of all I. W. W. investigations.

Mexican Slashed by Fellow Countryman

August Hernandez, 708 Washington street, is in the East Bay Hospital, suffering from severe knife wounds, and Manuel Alvina, living at Fifth and Clay streets, is in the city prison, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, as the result of an argument over Mexican intervention that ended in a fight. Hernandez used an iron spade, Medina the knife, in the battle that took place at Thirty-fifth street and Telegraph avenue yesterday, when the two men, according to witnesses, grappled in a fierce struggle that was ended when others pulled them apart and called the police.

$1000 JEWELS ARE TAKEN BY FERRY THIEF

Oakland police are today searching for the pickpocket who robbed Dr. P. W. Harnden, 51 1/2 Camino Real, Berkeley, of jewelry valued at $1,000 on the Key Route ferry boat.

Police scout the belief that the jewelry was placed in an Oakland pawnshop, though all these establishments are being visited by inspectors.

It is believed the pickpocket was an expert. The police suspect he disposed of his booty through a fence, either in Oakland or San Francisco.

Dr. Harnden had the jewelry wrapped in a small package, reports Mrs. Harnden. The package was taken from the coat pocket of the owner.

Among the many articles, were several rare pieces. Three diamond rings, a beauty pin, a locket, six stickpins, a lady's neck chain were the most expensive articles in the loot.

'TRIBUNE' PICNIC BIGGEST THING SLATED SUNDAY

Buddy's going! So are all the big brothers and little sisters and big sisters!

Dads and mothers are not forgotten, and all their friends and chums and sweethearts are invited, too.

The time for THE TRIBUNE'S big picnic is here. Two large steam launches will leave tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the wharf at the foot of Webster street, bound for Monticello Grove.

All sorts of joy are in store for THE TRIBUNE employees and their guests and an invitation has been issued to the public. There will be dancing, sports, events and boating.

Tickets are on sale at THE TRIBUNE main office or can be bought at the boat landing. The cost is $1.20 for adults and 60 cents for children.

There are 500 employees of this newspaper who will be eligible for the trip, and it's hard to find any who are not going.

The TRIBUNE employees have been looking forward to this event for many weeks. This annual outing has proved a great success in the past and there will be added features this year. It has come to be an institution, known throughout the Eastbay.

Many are planning to take along old clothes tomorrow, so they can thoroughly enjoy the picnicking. Monticello Grove, in Marin county, is declared to be the ideal place for a good time outing.

Von Brincken Case Is Set for July 22

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Milo Abernethy von Brincken against Baron Wilhelm von Brincken has been set for July 22 by Superior Judge Bernard J. Flood. Von Brincken's attorney, Henry M. Owens, said that his client will plead that his wife condoned his conviction of violation of the neutrality laws, and that this will be proved by the fact that a child was born fourteen months after Von Brincken was ordered to McNeil island penitentiary.

The attorney added that he had written to his client stating that under certain circumstances it would be best to permit the wife to take an interlocutory decree and then present an appeal in the six months which must intervene before the granting of a final decree. Von Brincken's term expires December 10, and he would be released in time to perfect the appeal, as the six months will not elapse until January 22.

Hall Caine Novel

Tomorrow, Kinema

"The Woman Thou Gavest Me" brought to screen in a magnificent production.

Sold like a slave; wedded by a selfish father to a dissolute cad whom she loathed, this pure young girl was expected to "love, honor and obey."

The world cried that right.

Then she married the man her husband had broken, shattered the lie that bound her, sought the aid of a decent man she loved. And the world called that wrong.

In her soul a Madonna; to the world a Magdalen, Hall Caine's mighty romance, "The Woman Thou Gavest Me" is a startling blow for freedom from moral hypocrisy.

CAMERA MAY SHOW BRIDE'S SLAYER HUSBAND AGAIN CLOSELY QUIZZED

UKIAH, July 12.—Herman Knaesche, husband of Freda Knaesche, bride of two weeks, who was killed with a shotgun at their home here last Wednesday, was released from custody early today, after he had been grilled for more than eight hours by Sheriff Byrnes and his assistants. Knaesche was taken into custody immediately after the slain woman's death.

"All our efforts to cause Knaesche to change his story and incriminate himself were futile," said Sheriff Byrnes today. "Therefore there was nothing for us to do but turn him loose, but I want to say that I am far from satisfied. The case is now more of a puzzle to me than ever."

HUSBAND'S SHIRT MISSING

One of Knaesche's shirts is said to be missing, and it is alleged that Knaesche has been unable to account for the shirt. Knaesche said that the shirt he now wears he put on for the first time last Monday, two days before the slaying of Mrs. Knaesche. It is pointed out by the sheriff that the shirt is not at all soiled, and the sheriff maintains that a man of Knaesche's calling could not wear a shirt from Monday to Friday in the ordinary course of his work without soiling it considerably.

It is the expressed belief of Sheriff Byrnes that after the killing of Mrs. Knaesche the slayer went to the nearby river to cleanse himself of blood stains; that whoever committed the murder must have taken off his blood-stained shirt and hid it.

STOPPED TO TAKE SWIM

Knaesche has said that when he was returning home, just before finding the body of his wife, he stopped at the river and took a swim. Upon this point, some girls who were bathing in the river at about the time Mrs. Knaesche was killed, have informed the sheriff that they saw a man running along the river bank. In checking up the story told by the girls the sheriff found a man's footprints at that place.

Plates of the finger prints taken from the shotgun with which the woman was killed were sent to San Francisco today to be developed. Then they will be returned here for comparison with the finger prints of eight possible suspects rounded up by the sheriff and his deputies.

Knaesche has stated positively that the gun was not loaded when he left home and it is believed that the finger prints on the gun and on the shell were made by the slayer of Mrs. Knaesche.

ger prints on the gun and on the shell were made by the slayer of Mrs. Knaesche.

Sheriff Ralph Byrnes frankly admitted today that the authorities of Mendocino county are not optimistic over their chances to apprehend the murderer of Mrs. Freda Knaesche. "We will talk to Herman Knaesche again," he said. Herman is the husband of the murdered woman. They had been married two weeks.

"Do you think Herman Knaesche is guilty?" the sheriff was asked.

"There is a big question mark after his name," said Sheriff Byrnes.

Byrnes said there was a period of 45 minutes when Knaesche was absent from his home, according to Knaesche's own story. If Knaesche is innocent of murdering his wife, said Byrnes, the murder must have occurred during that brief period. Knaesche was the chief mourner at the funeral yesterday. He is the chief object of attention here, where the citizens have been aroused by details of the most brutal murder in the county's history.

A crowd remained outside the sheriff's office, while Knaesche, who is a returned soldier, was being questioned. No threats were made, however.

DEMENTED MAN CRIES OUT IN FEAR OF 'DART'

After spending half the night with a man who, he swears, is a violent lunatic, wandering about in carpet slippers and a dressing gown to find a policeman, and finally being taken for a lunatic himself, Dr. E. F. Jones, city bacteriologist, is recovering from his strenuous midnight adventures, and "Sam Ellis," as he gives his name, is being held in the jail hospital for examination. Jones was awakened shortly before midnight at his home at Eighth and Adeline streets, when the alleged lunatic pounded loudly on his door.

"Doctor!" he shouted. "I'm done for! They've hit me with a Salinas Dart!"

"What's the idea?" demanded the doctor.

The patient explained: "They send 'em—I don't know who—when they have it in for you!" he said. "They shot them into your head, and they bore and bore their way through you. They can bore through anything—iron, bone—and they're going to kill me!"

The physician tried to calm the patient, who showed signs of becoming violent. He tried to get the police by telephone, but couldn't raise a cord. Finally he went forth to the street in his dressing gown. A youth and two girls were passing, and he called to them that there was a crazy man in his house and to call the police. The three looked at him and fled. But they called the police, and in a few minutes there was a squad at the doctor's door. The patient was removed, still bewailing the "occult dart" that he said was slowly killing him.

Former Birdman Weds Santa Cruz Girl

Across the continent to meet and back again to wed, is the romantic story of the courtship of Lieutenant Leland W. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Davis of this city.

And lone Baldwin who today are on their honeymoon, the destination of which has not been told. In all Santa Cruz, at Cedar and Spruce streets in Berkeley last night, the marriage ceremony was read by Rev. H. H. Powell, the pastor, in the presence of a small company of friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anos M. Baldwin of Santa Cruz. It was while she was a student in Simmons college of Boston that she met the young Oakland man, and the romance had its beginning. Lieutenant Davis, who was recently discharged from the air service, is a graduate of the New Hampshire State college. Until recently he was stationed at Ellington field in Texas.

Chaplin, Mirth King, Buries Boy Grieved Parent Puts Toys Away

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Charlie Chaplin, king of mirth, made no one laugh today. Head bowed in pitiful grief, the man whose very name brings a smile the world over, rode beside a little white casket to the cemetery here and saw his first-born son and then hoping against hope that the doctors were wrong—that the boy could live.

Then, alone, the man of laughter went out to his beautiful Hollywood home and in the door of the Mother Goose nursery turned a little brass key. In that room Charlie Chaplin locked the toys that his Little Boy Blue kissed good night. And with him he locked his own dreams of the days when he would be rolling on the floor with a chubby lad bubbling with laughter.

Little else but the babe that was soon to be his. From the moment it arrived he had stayed by its side at the hospital, first with all the proud joy of every father over his first-born son and then hoping against hope that the doctors were wrong—that the boy could live.

And when the wee heir to the throne of film comedy breathed his last breath last night, the joy of key, for a time at least, was gone from Charlie Chaplin. Studio gossip long has had it that Chaplin was firing of the work of making others laugh. Today his friends wondered when Charlie would laugh again.

13TH AT BROADWAY

Bravery of Seamen Is Recognized

Lasting recognition of the bravery of our sailors who faced German submarines time after time during the war is to take the form of extending to every salt and fresh water sailor a medal or a certificate of work done in New York and San Francisco by the Seamen's Church Institute.

Merchant ships by the score fell victims to the enemy. Many men went to their death without warning. Others were captured and those who escaped wear no medals or rewards. They have no chevrons for gallantry or no medals for wounds received. They pass quietly and unnoticed but it is proposed to give them recognition now.

Except in New York and San Francisco there is little constructive work being done in honor of the men in the United States. Now as recognition of their bravery in the war it is proposed that every salt and fresh water sailor who has been in the service of the United States Navy or Merchant Marine be given a medal or certificate of work done in New York and San Francisco by the Seamen's Church Institute.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Disappears at Sea

disappeared while taking a sea trip on a fishing boat, and it is feared that the craft was sunk by a mine said a Central News despatch from Kirkwall today. Mine sweepers have been active off the Scottish coast destroying stray mines.

At the London branch of the American Y. M. C. A. it was said that Mr. Stinson's full name is John Elmer Stinson and his home is in Wichita, Kan. The London branch had received no information from Kirkwall.

'OTHER MAN' IN LESSER GIRL'S DEATH THEORY

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana whom Harry S. New, Jr., charged with the murder of Freda Lesser, claims as his father, may be asked for a deposition stating his knowledge of the circumstances of the birth of New, if any, Defense Attorney John L. Richardson indicated today that the same time the "other man" who has entered the case from Birmingham, Ala., and is said to have been a sweetheart of Miss Lesser while she was paying attention to New, will be asked for a deposition by the prosecution.

The Birmingham sweetheart will be asked to state in his deposition at what time he urged Miss Lesser to marry him and whether she ever mentioned the fact that New was paying attention to her in this city.

"We cannot cause Senator New's appearance in Los Angeles as a defense witness at the New trial because the senator is outside of the state," said Attorney Richardson.

"However, we can ask him to make a deposition which could be used in defense of my client."

JEALOUSY IS THEORY.
Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes, in charge of the prosecution of the case, was inclined to the theory today that New killed the girl in a frenzy of jealousy when he learned for the first time that she cared for the man in Birmingham.

New, according to the theory, was frightened out of hiding the body, realizing that eventually it would be found, and decided to bring the body to central police station, as he did, and confess the crime, believing such an unusual act would be considered the act of an insane man.

Attorney Richardson expressed astonishment after reading published statements that New had been seen at the dance hall at 9:30 Friday night, said.

A short time before a shot had been heard down the canyon but no attention was paid to it.

New brought Lesser's body to the central police station in Los Angeles at 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

If Miss Pritchard's story is substantiated, the crime of the day will probably be interpreted as evidence that the slaying was in cold blood and that New visited the camp to establish an alibi and later, becoming frightened, drove to police headquarters and surrendered.

New will be given a preliminary hearing in Justice Howard R. Hinshaw's court Monday morning at nine o'clock.

Tribute Is Paid to Sufrage Pioneer

J. Stitt Wilson, Albert Elliot, Thomas E. Haydon, Rabbi Nieto, Mrs. Elizabeth Lowe, Watson and Mrs. Robert Armstrong Dean, paid tribute to the memory of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, pioneer suffrage worker and close associate of Susan B. Anthony.

Woman's committee, National Council of Defense, at a memorial program arranged by the California Women's Suffrage Association yesterday at the Bellevue Hotel in San Francisco.

Mrs. Mary T. Gamage presided as chairman at the solemn meeting which assembled several scores of prominent suffrage workers representing all parts of California. The early struggles and the decision in which their efforts were held were recalled by Mrs. Watson, one of the pioneer suffragists in this state.

The Stitt Wilson named the late Dr. Shaw a type of the superwoman which makes for greater power in the lives of men and women.

SAVINGS BRANCH—49th and Telegraph

When President Wilson comes here to review the Pacific fleet, he will be enabled to deliver a speech of welcome which will be heard by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, every man on the warships and the people of the Eastbay cities and of San Francisco, all at the same time.

Arrangements to this end were completed today by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, through Eugene Howles, secretary of the public bureau, and a telegram was sent to the White House, asking approval of the plan.

The means through which more than 100,000 persons, it is estimated, can hear the President at the same time as when he is separated points will be in the use of the magnifying, a war time invention, the factory for which has recently been established in East Oakland.

WILL BE HEARD AFAR.
It is the plan to have President Wilson deliver his speech of welcome to the fleet from Goat Island. Through the installation of special wireless telephone attachments, his words will be carried to Telegraph Hill in San Francisco, to the City Hall, to every one of the battleships, cruisers, destroyers and submarines in the fleet and to all parts of Goat Island.

It is also planned to have the President and Secretary Daniels exchange greetings as the fleet steams up the coast from San Diego, where the secretary will board the fleet.

The conversation can be carried on for a distance of 100 or 120 miles and every word of the interchange of courtesies can be heard by the people in Oakland and San Francisco and on Goat Island.

OAKLAND'S OFFERING.
This feature of the reception to the President, the Pacific fleet and Secretary Daniels will be Oakland's offering to the general celebration being planned by a great committee representing all of Northern California under the chairmanship of Mayor Joseph P. Sloss, San Francisco.

"Mayor Davis has received a request to name a committee for Oakland," as has Mayor Bartlett of Berkeley. Mayor Davis will announce his selections early next week.

The arrangements for the use of the magnifying to permit the president to deliver his address as the fleet sails into the bay are being handled in detail by E. M. Steers, president of the committee; Peter L. Jensen, the inventor; Edwin S. Pridham and Addison N. Clark, engineers. They are all residents of Oakland.

Lieutenant Bailey Returns From France
Lieutenant Seth Bailey, former Oakland newspaper man, and a member of the editorial staff of "The Stars and Stripes," the army paper overseas, has returned to Oakland after eighteen months' service in France. Bailey, who had seen service with the National Guard along the border, enlisted in Portland in March, 1917, and in France was assigned to the training station at Contres. From July to August he saw service at the front, and later was transferred to the staff of "The Stars and Stripes." He was author of the "Henry's Letters to his Pat" column in the army newspaper.

Motorcyclist Lowers Canada-Mexico Mark
SAN DIEGO, July 12.—With a final dash of speed, Edwin (Cannonball) Baker, arrived at the Mexican border last night at 7:47 p. m., smashing the former motorcycle record held by "Hap" Scheerer from the Canadian to the Mexican border by five hours and eleven minutes.

Leaving Blaine, Wash., at eight a. m., Baker covered the entire distance of 1714 miles in 59 hours and 47 minutes.

Women's Class Hears Naturalization Quiz
Mrs. Paul Evans, instructor in naturalization at the summer session of the University of California, conducted her class of fifteen young women to the court house yesterday afternoon to hear the naturalization proceedings being conducted by Judge A. P. St. Sure. The young women listened with interest while an applicant for citizenship was questioned about the proposed women's suffrage amendment. He had heard of it, although he knew all about the other eighteen amendments heretofore adopted. The examiner elicited from him that he is not married or engaged to be, and excused his ignorance of suffrage matters on that ground.

Out of a class of 40 aliens fifteen were granted citizenship, the others cases being continued.

Defect in Ship Causes Delay in Launching Program
The Havilah, the 9400-ton freighter, was not launched at the Union Construction yards today. The sponsor, Mrs. H. D. Peake, wife of the vice-president and general manager of the company, was all prepared to break the bottle of sparkling champagne which was to christen the new vessel, and 500 invitations had been sent out before it was discovered that there was a serious defect in the stern frame castings. It will be several weeks before the launching will take place.

The Havilah, a sister ship to the Havilah, will be launched next Saturday, moving up in the list of vessels built by the Union Construction Company to fourth place instead of fifth, as originally planned.

WOMAN, AGE 87, IS DIVORCE PLAINTIFF
Having failed to win her recent suit for separate maintenance against Thomas P. Brown, whom she claims is her husband, although she had not seen him for over 35 years, Mrs. Mary Ellen Brown has renewed her fight in the form of a suit for divorce and the testimony is being heard by Judge A. P. St. Sure. She asks $75 a month alimony.

According to the testimony the couple went from Michigan to Colorado in 1875, and from there to Arizona, where trouble developed between them and they parted in 1887, drafting an agreement of separation by which she took an 80-acre farm in Michigan and a team and wagon. Brown claims that several years later he heard of Mrs. Brown's death in a railroad accident, and thereafter he married again. His business prospered and made him independent. In 1915 Mrs. Brown found that he was living in Alameda and later instituted her suit for maintenance. Brown gives his age as 80, and Mrs. Brown says she is 87 years old. Brown says he is unable to remember whether or not they were legally married, expressing the belief that there was no marriage license, and claiming that Mrs. Brown had another husband named Harris at the time, from whom she was separated. So many years crowded full of events have intervened between the time of their separation and the beginning of the divorce that Brown says he is unable to remember. He declares the woman to be the same as a stranger whom he never saw before. But although over a third of a century has come and gone, Mrs. Brown remembers in detail, relating seemingly trifling incidents of their lives together.

Up-to-Date Films Show Interesting Men and Events
Oakland's interesting people, places and events are being graphically presented to the public in great variety in the Tribune-Kinema Weekly which is shown daily at the Kinema Theater with a new program each Sunday.

The Boy Scouts' model camp at the head of Diamond Canyon with glimpses of the activities which make it the most popular summer camp for boys on this side of the bay is pictured in the weekly released tomorrow.

Other interesting items are the Livermore Rodeo visiting Oakland; Ray Baker, who makes more money than any man in the country—for the government, being director of mints; a day at the beach showing the rivals of Mack Sennett's bathing girls, and Jerry Crum, Oakland's millionaire fireman, who was injured recently while on duty. All are seasoned with bright bits from the Tribune Daily Almanac.

'GAS' BANDITS MAKE 13TH RAID
Oakland's youthful "gasoline station bandits" are at large today after their thirteenth robbery. Entering the oil station at Twelfth and Fallon streets, across the street from the station they robbed only two nights ago, they held up D. L. McFarlane, attendant, obtained $20 and escaped in the automobile they were driving last night. The police believe they were using a stolen machine.

The robbery was identical with other robberies he had hidden a sack containing $10 in another section of the station, and had hidden other money under an oil can, the only money in the cash register being the $20 change carried there.

The description of the two youths fits that of the youths in the other robberies, and also in the case of a grocery robbery on East Fourteenth street and several saloon holdups.

WETS MOVE TO FORCE FILING OF PETITION
SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—An application for a writ of mandate to compel D. B. Lyons, registrar of voters for Los Angeles county, to accept and file petitions for referendum directed against the Sheppard prohibition amendment to the constitution, signed by 15,000 voters of that county, was filed in the Supreme court here today by Attorney Theodore A. Bell and former Justice M. C. Sloss of that court, representing J. A. Bartlett, vice-president of the Italian Vineyard company of Los Angeles.

The petition filed with the application alleged that Registrar Lyons, when the petitions were offered for filing on June 21 last, refused to accept them on the sole ground "that the Sheppard amendment was not subject to referendum, having been ratified by the California legislature."

EXPECT RELING MONDAY.
The Supreme court on Monday will determine whether the alternative writ will issue and be then made returnable at an early date for hearing, as the last day it can be certified to Secretary of State Jordan, by Lyons, is July 21.

This is the first appearance of Justice Sloss in the Supreme court since he retired from the bench to join the law firm of Sloss, Ackerman & Bradley.

NEW SHIPPING RULE.
The Federal railroad administration today signified its willingness to accept shipments of beer, wine or other liquors for beverage purposes, when they were accompanied by certificates, worded as follows, which would be attached to the bill of lading: "The shipper hereby certifies that he (or it) is the owner of said — and that the same is being shipped to himself (or itself), and not in connection with any sale."

RETROACTIVE PAY, Chief Phone Issue
Congressional action suggested, resumption of conferences between the telephone company and the strike committee, definite statement from Washington, D. C., that the sole point now at issue is retroactive pay increase to January 1, were the developments today in the strike of 15,000 telephone operators and electrical workers on the Pacific Coast.

Although immediate settlement of the strike seemed unlikely, it appeared that the deadlock had been broken and that negotiations will be carried forward speedily until a conclusion is reached.

OWENS WIRES NOIAN.
In a telegram to Congressman John I. Nolan, from Henry Owens, former Republican county chairman, it is urged that Congress come to the relief by providing the money necessary to meet the demands of the telephone workers as long as the company remains under government control.

The message follows: "Telephone service here demoralized. Understand Burleson has no fund to meet demand for retroactive pay as of January 1 made by striking telephone workers on Pacific Coast. Suggest you introduce bill appropriating sufficient money to enable Burleson to meet these demands."

The conferences in Washington, D. C., are said to have arrived at a conclusion that an agreement can be reached as a result of the signing yesterday by President Wilson of a resolution to return the wires to private ownership on August 1.

AGGREGATE SUM LARGE.
Retroactive pay to the striking linemen would average $150 and $55 each to the 12,000 telephone operators, according to figures submitted at the conferences. Burleson is reported to have refused to permit the wire control board to take action on the retroactive pay demand while the strike continues.

Until assurance is given that the retroactive pay will be forthcoming.

2,000 QUIT AT CLEVELAND.
CLEVELAND, O., July 13.—Cleveland telephone operators and electrical workers went on strike at 6 o'clock this morning.

Union leaders claimed that more than 2,000 operators responded to the call, while company officials declared probably not more than 25 per cent of their employees joined in the strike.

REGD AS BAD CHECK PASSER.
Alfred Williams, a recent arrival from the East, is under arrest on complaint of Fred Worth, proprietor of a cafe in Berkeley, who accuses him of cashing a fictitious check. Williams is being held for the Berkeley authorities. Worth says that he lost $150 on the check.

ARRESTS IN OAKLAND FOR YEAR, 15,000
Oakland's police force, in the year ending June 30, made 15,000 arrests, as against 12,500 arrests in the year before, according to the report of Chief of Police J. F. Lynch today. The chief's tabulation includes "flu mask" arrests and various arrests made by the neutrality bureau or morals squad working under the direction of the government officials during the period of the war, which materially raised the total of arrests.

Chief Lynch urges that extra men be placed on the force that various districts may be properly patrolled. Increase in industrial plants and in shipyards, requiring more men in such districts has, he says, depleted then available for downtown duty, and in addition traffic needs have greatly increased.

Lynch recommends flash light signal switchboards for both outside stations.

And the Pebbles Were Diamonds!
The farmers of Kimberley were dissatisfied. They said they couldn't make a living from their farms. And all the time their children in the fields were playing with diamonds.
But they didn't know. They thought they were pebbles. They died poor.
Lots of people are just like those Kimberley farmers. They look for Opportunity with a telescope, in some far-away place, when it is really so close that they could reach out their hands and grasp it.
Don't miss the advertisements. They are business mines of opportunity. They tell of values that you might never know if they were not there to guide you.
Don't miss them. They will save you money.
